INTERNSHIP:

Organization	Duration	Role/ Key responsibilities
Thomson Reuters Bangalore	May 2017-July 2017	Content Analyst in the Finance and Risk Department of Thomson Reuters	Worked under the Foreign Exchange and Money Markets (FXMM) Team and dealt with analyzing different quoted prices of assets such as a security, commodity or currency from contributors which were represented as security codes termed Contributor RICS (Reuters Instrument Code). The prices pertained to different instruments like SPOTS, FORWARDS, etc. Our role was to filter the prices and set specific tolerance limits after applying quality control measures based on information supplied by leading market data contributors before they could flow into the composite RICS. Composite RIC Rates were then updated onto "Thomson Reuters Eikon" platform to facilitate their clients with accurate and genuine indicative prices for various trade transactions.
